

Consultant Profile: Lukas Hohler

Born 1971, M.A. Conflict Resolution, Diploma in Process-oriented Psychology. Since 2006 freelance consultant, coach and trainer.

Previous positions as a consultant and trainer:

2006 – 2010 consultancy, development of methods and training for sip teams (security/intervention/prevention) in Zürich, Lucerne and Bern (Switzerland): conflict management und crisis intervention in the public sphere

2008 – 2012 development und implementation of the “Strong Leaders” training programme (Switzerland, Germany, Greece)

2010 – 2011 development und implementation of the “Being Strong in Youth Work” training programme

2011 – 2012 development of the “Leaders Empowered” qualification programme

Main areas of expertise: conflict and communication training, crisis intervention and prevention of violence, moderation of change processes, Worldwork

Training courses: organisational development, working with large groups, threat management and prevention of violence

Languages: German and English

Other information: lives in Zürich (Switzerland) and Portland, OR (USA). Passionate traveller and nomad in the service of empowerment