

Consultant Profile: Wilbert L. Olinde

Born 1955, former basketball professional, studied business studies at Göttingen as well as economics in Los Angeles, since 2003 full-time Inspiration Coach for sport and business

Previous positions as a consultant and trainer: worked in the financial services sector with responsibility for organisation, project management, strategic planning, and was a member of the management board (18 years in total)

Main areas of expertise: inspiration coaching, inspiration TeamBall, inspiration impulse, mental training, team development, personal development, peak performance and mental fitness development

Training courses: NLP Business Master (DVNLP - German Association for Neuro-linguistic Programming), Business Coach (dvct - German Organisation for Coaching & Training), Sport Mental Coach (H.I.M.), ViQ Profiler

Languages: German and English

Other information: “You don’t have to understand the world, just find your place in it” Albert Einstein